“ I miss him very much, he was a loving and kind brother to me. I'm sad I didn't get to go to his service. It's almost been two years and I'm still shocked he's gone and not in this world. He will always be in our hearts and minds. I'll make sure that his memories are kept alive.

“ My wife & I did not know Raul, but we regret the sorrow you feel. We've grieved the loss of sons who were a little younger than Raul, and I'm sure it doesn't feel so right now, but we can tell you that as time passes you will be able to remember more of the good times and dwell less on your loss. We found that each person grieves in a different way and at different times, so we encourage each of you to allow for those differences in your families.

We are of the Christian faith and we dealt with our pain based on our belief that God is still sovereign even when we don't understand the loss. May you find comfort as you walk through this "valley of the shadow of death" and may friends share their good memories of Raul with you.
