

Adrian Jamar Broadway

January 9, 2007 - November 28, 2025

Adrian Jamar Broadway, affectionately known as “Lil A” or simply “AJ”, transitioned on November 28, 2025, in Little Rock, AR.

Adrain was born January 09, 2007, in Little Rock, Arkansas, to Latanya Rice and Adrian Broadway. He was a proud graduate of Southwest High School, where he made friendships and unforgettable memories.

Adrian was deeply rooted in family and found his greatest joy in spending time with his loved ones whether he was cracking jokes, playing the game, making music (rapping), or chasing his nieces, nephews, and little cousins around. He brought an undeniable light and comfort to every room he entered. His dedication to his mother was unmatched. He was “The Biggest” in a little body. His laugh, his big heart, and his loyal spirit is what everyone will miss the most.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Royella Dean, and his sister, Cierra Onukwube.

He is survived by his parents, Latanya Rice and Adrian Broadway; grandparents, Herbert and Joyce Broadway, and George and Alfreda Rice; four loving sisters, Sanarra Onukwube, Tashayla Rice, Adrien Broadway, and Layla Broadway. He is also remembered by his two devoted brothers, Ceasire

Onukwube and Travon Rice; three cherished nieces, Maijesty, Marielle, and Makynlee; three beloved nephews, Ceasire Jr., Marquan, and Mahki; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends also mourn his loss.

“ My condolences and prayers go out A Dog, the family, and friends, may God give everyone the strength that’s needed. I met A Dogs son for the first time at my son Leonard King’s house. A very nice and respectful young man. I’m so sorry for the loss and pain everyone is going through. Lord wrap your loving arms around the family, and friends of AJ. Help them to find comfort, peace, and understanding. ❤️🙏🙏 Lord please please help the family and friends to make it every second, minute, hour, day, week, month, and the year without their love one and friend, especially during this holiday season. Lord have Mercy!!!❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏.

“ AJ was cool and respectful. When I saw him in May, I didn’t recognize him at 1st. He grew up too fast. Lol. I’m glad everyone has so many memories of and with him. He was a delight to be around. The Lord is close to the brokenhearted. Praying for the family and friends. Rest well AJ. 🙏❤️
