“ WITH SO MANY MEMORIES, I'D LIKE TO THINK OF THE GOOD ONES... LIKE THE TIME WHEN SOMEONE HIT MY BRAND NEW CAR AND MORK FIXED IT LIKE A PROFESSIONAL, OR HOW ABOUT WHEN HE SAW ME AT THE CLUB AND CUSSED ME OUT AND TOLD ME TO GO HOME CAUSE IN HIS EYES I WAS STILL HIS LIL COUSIN/SIS (I WAS 18 YRS OLD). MAYBE THE TIME WHEN HE DECIDED TO SELL WOMEN HIGH HEEL SHOES AND GAVE MY DAUGHTER A PAIR TO PLAY IN. BUT THE MOST TOUCHING MOMENTS ARE THE ONES WHEN I WOULD GO BY AUNT BETTY'S HOUSE AND THEY'D BE THERE ON THE PORCH AND LIKE A MOTHER SHE WOULD BE TELLING HIM WHAT HE NEEDED TO DO TO GET RIGHT, AND HE'D BE TELL HER WHAT HE WAS DOING(RIGHT OR WRONG). BUT IT WAS THE CONVERSATIONS...COMMUNICATION...IT'S WAS ALL LOVE BETWEEN A MOTHER AND SON. IT WAS FUNNY TO SEE HER SLIGHTLY BOTHERED BY HIS RESPONSE... BUT YOU BETTER NOT TRY BETTY JO IN FRONT OF MARK SABB CAUSE HE ABSOLUTELY DID NOT PLAY ABOUT HIS MAMA!

MAY EVERY FUNNY HILARIOUS AND LOVING MEMORY BE A COMFORT TO THE FAMILY

My big brother!!!! You will forever be missed. My memories will never be forgotten. From the sand to the sea shells that I still have. Didn't know that did ya. From us play fighting when Mama would go to work. We would pulled the mattress out to the front room. We would fight and fight with my famous EIIIIIIIIbowwwwwww move. I know Erica and Rod remember my famous move. I love you and I have no doubt that you knew that to the last and final hug I got from you when I took you home to Hot Springs. This right here is ver difficult. I want to say this is hard but the word says that he won't put more no ya than we can bare. So I guess we are strong. I love you Mork...

“ Mork as we call him...from the Sitcom Mork and Mindy...Mork was an Alien and so was our brother!! He was so different from our oldest brother, not quiet, not calm, not easy going, and not gonna be a fool for noone!!! Mork was one of the most hard working people O know. He did not mind cooking, cleaning, or taking care of other men kids. If he was dating you, he was dating your kids too. He would make them clean up and he talked to them like he meant every word he said. Trust me he did. Turn these lights off, pick up that trash, does that bed look made up too you?? Stop running water, it is not free, close the refrigerator, close the door letting all the air out.... I could go on and on....but I know he loved me. Since we are only two years apart he took care of like a big brother should. He taught for me, ran boys off, and ran girls off too. If you thought you were going to make me cry, he was going to make you cry too. As we got older, I became the lil big sister. He called for advice--- of course he was not going to do it, but it made him feel better because it ended with don't tell mama nothing....you hear me, Erica.. I am going to miss our family reunion, get together entertainment. My life will never be the same, you have been with me my entire life, teaching me how to climb poles, climb fences, make mud pies, and eat bugs for protein. I will use the same memories to teach your children what not to do!! I love you Mork-- Dippa lip.. your lil big sister, Erica Allen- McBride

You crossed my mind today and I smiled so big at the memories of you while you were in PC, reading all the posts about you and your demeanor towards loved ones reminded me of why you treated me like your little sister. You would call & check up on me & the kids, always wanting to make sure we were good. You were fascinated that my son's eyes matched yours, I used to tell you that y'all red boys were all the same. You never "tried" me, instead I became your sister in the little time you were around, we would sit in the breezeway or green box and laugh the night away. May you continue to rest in our Father's heavenly arms until we meet again and to hear you say "heyyyyy guhl, long time no see"
