

Mr. Cory L. Browning

July 21, 1975 - November 8, 2024

Cory “Brown” Browning was born on July 21, 1975, in Little Rock, Arkansas, to Betsy Browning and the late Roy Browning Sr. Cory peacefully departed this life on November 8, 2024.

Cory and his beloved wife, Tasha Cain-Browning, were united in marriage on April 27, 2023, after sharing more than 20 years together. Their bond was filled with laughter, love, and cherished memories. Cory was the proud father of T’Keyah Smith and Malik Smith, and a devoted grandfather to his cherished grandson, Y’Shua Coleman.

He was preceded in death by his father, Roy Browning Sr.; his sister, Ericka Browning-McClinton; his paternal grandmother, Imogene Browning; his maternal grandfather, Earley Brown, and his niece, Keyanna Wright.

A man of great faith, Cory accepted Christ at a young age and carried that devotion throughout his life. For 23 years, Cory was a dedicated and loyal employee at Star Bolt, Inc., admired for his strong work ethic and loyalty. A proud alumnus of Hall High School’s Class of 1994, home of the Warriors, Cory was a Raiders fan for life and the family jokester, known for filling every room with warmth and laughter. His infectious smile, joyful spirit, and heartfelt hugs left a lasting impact on everyone he met. Cory's legacy of laughter, compassion, and friendship will forever remain in the hearts of those who had the privilege of knowing him.

Cory leaves behind his loving wife, Tasha Cain-Browning, along with his children, T'Keyah Smith and Malik Smith, and his grandson, Y'Shua Coleman. His mother, Betsy Browning, and his siblings, Kasonia Boner (Darren), Vincent Lewis, Roy Browning Jr. (Quincy), and Ciji Browning-Muldrow (Elbert), will continue to honor his memory. His niece, Deena Browning-Norris (Tariq), and nephew, Reginald McClinton, also carry on his legacy, along with his grandmother, Dorothy Brown, and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.
