Dominic Kierre Tillman was born September 16, 1992. He was the oldest child born to Emery Tillman III and Shemeka Jordan. He was active in the community, sharing his time and skills with Skillz-n-Drillz, a youth mentoring basketball organization. Dominic loved the game of basketball and the sport of boxing; he loved his job as a welder; but the thing he loved most was being a father.

Dominic was a devoted father to his daughter, Lauren "Honey Lemon". Time spent with Lauren was precious to him, including those shopping trips where he so meticulously picked out clothes for her. It was his pride to show her that she was loved and greatly adored by a caring and loving dad.

He will be fondly remembered for his art of roasting, which always had a way of bringing joy and laughter to any gathering.

Dominic was preceded in death by his father, Emery Tillman III; his maternal grandfather, James Jordan; and his great grandparents, George and Lillian Robinson.

Dominic leaves a tremendous legacy of love and will be forever cherished by his family; daughter, Lauren Simone (Arkansas); mother, Shemeka (Arkansas); sisters, N'Kayla Cymone (Texas), Jayse, and Fina (Arkansas); brothers, Kain, Emery, Emery Artril IV, Ethan Max (Arkansas); maternal grandmother: Barbara Robinson (Arkansas); paternal grandparents: Emery II and Vallory (Arkansas); paternal great grandmother: Bobbie Lee Landers (Arkansas), his exceptional aunt Kim (Mark) (Arkansas), and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
