

Mrs. Dorothy Brown

October 4, 1935 - December 18, 2025

Dorothy Mae Keith Brown was born on October 4, 1935, to the late Early Tucker and Icy Keith in Crossett, Arkansas. She peacefully departed this life on December 18, 2025, in the comfort of her home.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Earley Brown; sons, Willie Keith and Frank Gadie; son-in-law, Roy Browning Sr.; daughter, Earlie M. Brown-Washington; daughter-in-law, Deborah Brown; granddaughters, Ericka Browning-McClinton (Reginald) and Yolanda Joyce Harris; grandson, Cory Browning; great-granddaughters, Keyanna Wright and Celeste Winnfield; great-grandsons, Jaylon Keishun England and Jovon Allen; special niece, Charlene Anderson (Clarence); one sister; and six brothers.

Dorothy was a devoted worker, servant, and matriarch whose life was marked by love, faith, and generosity. She gave her life to Christ at a young age and lived out her faith through faithful service to others. She served her community in many roles, sharing her talents as a skilled seamstress and baker. Every cake she baked was made with love, just as everything she did came from her heart. Known as a true giver and a servant with a heart of gold, Dorothy was also honored as the first mother of New Horizon Christian Church. She enjoyed traveling and bowling, but her greatest joy was her family. She dearly loved her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, who were the pride of her life.

Those left to cherish her memory include her daughters, Betsy Browning, Rose Yancy, Vanessa Thompson, Sonia Brown, and Nashira Bailey; sons, Joseph Brown, Andre Brown, and Cedric Brewer; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.

“ Sending my love and deep condolences to Ciji and her family in this time of mourning. I didn’t get a chance to meet Ms Dorothy, but if she is anything like her daughter and granddaughter, she was a delight to be around. Thank you for your love for your family that is now a standard for the future for generations to come. May you be resting peacefully, know your presence is still felt 🙏🏾🙏🏾
