“ To my sister Schekesia and family, I am praying for your strength and, that God will give you peace as you'll go through this difficult time. Eddie, was so funny I use to like to hear him fuss and look over those glasses 😂. But after all the fussing he'd make sure you were okay. I could always count on a cold soda and a bag of chips when I went to his home. He will truly be missed. Sisterbear I love you and the family. Just this difficult hurt one day at a time and look to God for comfort.

Love you,
Michelle

“To the Waters Family and to my cousin Schekesia (Tom), I want to give my deepest condolences. Eddie Lee was a Great Person! I can remember when I would come over to the house to visit Kesia and Eddie would always offer me something to drink. He would ask me, "How was my mom doing" and asked me how everything was going with me. He has always been nice and pleasant to me and made me feel comfortable to be in his home. He will truly be missed. "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me". John 14:13

Love Always,

To the Waters family and my loving neice Schekesia (tom) Meadough. I cant say I know how you feel but I do know that God will be your strength in times like these. Eddie has been a friend and a brother to me. There was time when I was down and he would lift me up. If I needed him in any way he was always there and I will never forget him for being there for me and our family. I will never forget his smile there were many day I would be at work and I had a frown on my face and he would come in joking with me and turn my frown in to a smile. That was Eddie Lee Water some people would refer to him as the coco cola guy. I thank you for so many things Eddie. Including in giving me a beautiful neice who looks just like you. You and your smile will be missed but never forget. Love you brother Eddie , I will see you and the rest of God angels one day. Rest in Heaven.

“ My deepest sympathy to Eddie Lee’s family. I am extremely saddened to hear that he has passed on. But I take great comfort in knowing that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Our families have known and loved one another our entire lives- growing up across the street from each other. Eddie, you will be missed.
