Lois Marie Nelson Lewis, the fifth child of the late Jimmie and Louise Nelson was born on March 11, 1945, in England, Arkansas. She departed this life on February 16, 2021 at Midtown Healthcare & Rehabilitation Center.

She attended Nelson Elementary school and went on to graduate from Nelson High School in 1963.

Lois confessed her love and dedication to Christ at the early age of 12. She was baptized under the leadership of Rev. J.S. Dunn and united with Paradise Baptist Church where she remained a faithful and dedicated member until she was called home to be with the Lord. During her tenure at Paradise, she developed a love for gospel songs and joined the church Inspirational Choir.

Her spirit was further nurtured when she had a passion to chair the Sick Committee at church as well as work on the Food Bank Committee. Lois was best known for her love to check on everyone by contacting them daily via telephone.
