

Ms. Nadean Dumas

April 1, 1964 - June 3, 2025

Nadean Mariece Dumas got her wings on Tuesday, June 3rd, 2025, at 6:30 p.m. at Baptist Health Hospital (Springhill) of North Little Rock, with her family by her side.

Nadean was born on April 1st, 1964, at 6:19 p.m. to the late John and Marjorie Lemon of Brinkley, Arkansas. Predeceased by her parents, her son Dewayne Lavell Jones, her brother James Allen Roberson, her aunt Irene Roberson, and a host of cousins.

Nadean gave her life to Christ on August 27th, 2017, at First Baptist Church, McAlmont, in North Little Rock, Arkansas. She worked in management in the food service industry until her retirement.

Nadean was the definition of straightforward. The type of person from whom others can learn a lot from: you are true to yourself, aren't ashamed of yourself, and always spread positivity wherever you go. You give everything, and even though you can be brutally honest, you never judge anyone because you have a great heart. Your confidence and strength are always there, ensuring that you will win all of your battles. She taught everyone to stay true to themselves and never hold your tongue in the name of love. She will be truly missed and loved forever.

She leaves to cherish her memory: son, Anthony Johnson of Conway, AR; daughters, Dorothy Shavis (Devrick) of Benton, AR, and LaKeshia Pippins of Jacksonville, AR; sisters, Brenda Lewis of Jacksonville, AR, Delois Johnson of Little Rock, AR, Deborah Lockhart (Jerry) of Katy, TX; brothers, John Lemon Jr. of Jacksonville, AR, Darren and Derrick Collins of Jacksonville, AR; aunt, Virginia Roberson of Rockford, IL; five grandchildren, Alexis Adams, Treyton Turner, Kamarion Adams, Devrick Shavis Jr., and Royalty Shavis, all of Benton, AR; and a host of nieces, cousins, extended family, and friends.
