“ Our staff holds fond memories of Nikko and appreciation for his hard work during the 2019 legislative session. Nikko voluntarily took on any task and pitched in to complete pre-meeting set-ups, performing his duties with a caring and positive attitude. We knew him as a doting father excited for weekends spent with his son. Prayers of comfort are extended on behalf of his son and family members. Legislative Committee Staff

“ Nikko was one of a kind, he was sweet, gentle and extremely intelligent. I remember always wanted to make better grades than him which showed that he influenced others to do better. I will forever remember our memories from Geyer Springs Elementary and Southwest Middle school.

The family and friends of Nikko are in my prayers, I pray that God give you all peace and understanding.

“ When I saw the post, I was happy to see a classmate I hadn’t seen in a while, on my timeline. When I started to read the post, my heart skipped a beat and I dropped my phone! My heart truly goes out to his son, and family. I know this isn’t easy to deal with at the moment, and some days will be better than others. Im just praying for you all strength. #gonebutNEVERforgotten

“ *Brandon Webber and Nikko were friends most of their childhood and adult life. He spent time at our house during middle school and some of high school playing games on the PlayStation after my husband picked them up from school. Nikko was always kind and respectful and never gave us any problems. He got along well with Brandon and became a part of our family. Nikko will truly be missed by all that knew him. “ Nikko was not only my classmate but he was my friend. I'll never forget those days in middle school when he would wear jerseys and sweat bands. He had a amazing personality and a bright smile. He was smart and kind hearted. We went to different high school's but we later seen each other out after we graduated and caught up on present times. I'm going to miss the conversations and laughs we would share when ever we wrote each other on facebook. Praying for the family and other friends! He will be missed!! ”
