“ Mrs. Stella Mae was one of my mom's (Christine Posey) truest friends, confidential buddies, and an A-one hairdresser. My mama was glad to see her each time she topped that bridge to visit. In addition to being so pretty, she was a little seed that could be a bitter weed. As a matter of fact, she would always comment on my being such a hard worker (yep picking and chopping cotton), to the point that I would make a good daughter-in-law. Now that's the highest praise. I am happy to have been a child in her midst. She was kind and helpful and direct. Each of our families knew all the members of the other one's family. On behalf of Chris, from our family to yours with prayers and God's blessings.
